Safe Families Canada

<https://safefamiliescanada.com>

Safe Families is a movement exemplifying biblical hospitality by surrounding families in crisis with caring, compassionate community. Safe Families chapters across the US, UK, and Canada are motivated by faith to keep children safe and families intact through extended family-like support to parents who otherwise have no others. Through churches, volunteers are engaged, approved, trained, and supported to provide loving, short-term care for children so that parents can get back on their feet.

Come and learn more about:

- Being willing and able to host a child in your home for a short period of time
- Coaching and supporting families in crisis to reach their goals
- Encouraging families with tangible support (e.g. transportation, meals)
- How this ministry is an alternative to child welfare or foster care
- How to refer a parent who is overwhelmed and without a support network
